ORIGINALLY from North Cadbury in Somerset, SONIA LUFF and partner Rod moved to Uplyme from Kent and opened the Black Tearoom selling homemade light lunches, cakes and other treats.

Sonia is also a psychic clairvoyant, a skill she says she was born with, a reiki practitioner and she can also read tealeaves.

HOW did you come to set up the Black Dog Tearoom?

I was working for a small, family-run petrol garage in Kent but was made redundant. Me and my partner Rob were asked by his mum about the possibility of running a tea room, as Rob loved cooking in his spare time from the garage and we wanted a better pace of life. We now live at the Black Dog as well.

WHAT kind of food and drink do you offer? We offer all homemade food. Rod makes all the bread and pastry and cakes, we do light lunches. soups, filled rolls, cream teas, cake - including wheat free, as I cannot eat wheat myself - homemade pizza, bean burgers and I sell loose leaf tea, Luscombe cold drinks and much more.

We also have a specials menu and offer Fairtrade coffee and hot chocolate, Marshfield Farm ice cream, which is wheat free, and we allow dogs in as we have dogs ourselves.

HOW did you come to be a psychic clairvoyant? Is this something you've always been able to do?

I was born with it on my mother's side from my great nan.

HOW can you help people as a psychic clairvoyant?

I have helped many people; I offer readings and help them with answers to anything I that can bring someone peace.

CAN you tell us a little about what reiki is and its benefits?

It is a healing technique from Japan. I am used as a channel for energy spirit and the healing is passed into my hands, which get very warm.

It gives the person peace and calm and can help if they are in pain. There are hand positions on every part of the body front and back.

I love doing it and I feel calm and peaceful when

Restorative justice to roll-out in Weymouth

WEYMOUTH and Portland is to get its own restorative justice scheme - following the success of similar projects in West Dorset and

It brings together victims of crime and perpetrators which organisers say helps reduce reoffending rates.

In many cases those who committed offences often 'make good' the damage they might have done, for example by repairing damage, or helping out with projects in the community.

Facilitators use the exercise to tackle the reasons for the offending behaviour and say the scheme often also brings 'closure' to victims.

One of the biggest attractions of the scheme, for offenders, is that it avoids them having a criminal record or being prosecuted - but the project is only open for first-time offenders and for relatively minor offences.

Further information about the scheme is available from Alan Jenkins via email - alan.jenkins@dorset.pnn.police.uk.

Board members needed for Local Enterprise Partnership

THE Dorset Local Enterprise Partnership (LEP) is looking to recruit five new professional's from the county's private sector to join its board.

The Dorset LEP aims to promote local economic growth and prosperity. Acting as a strategic gateway to funding, the Dorset LEP supports and delivers projects of long term economic benefit for all in Dorset.

It bids for, implements and invests government funding into different industry sectors across Dorset.

Dorset LEP's board is led by a private sector chair and comprises nine private and four public sector representatives in addition to a representative from both the further and higher education sectors.

Gordon Page, chairman of Dorset LEP, said: "Dorset LEP has challenging and ambitious plans to grow and transform Dorset's diverse economy.

"To achieve this, we need to further strengthen and broaden private sector representation on our board to ensure our collective expertise reflects all areas of industry and economic activity identified in our strategic economic plan.

"The successful candidates will play an integral role in shaping the direction for the economic growth and development of the region and ensuring Dorset LEP delivers on its vision for growth, jobs and prosperity for the county."

The successful candidates will be expected to become members and/or chair one or more of Dorset LEP's sub groups or working parties, such as the Dorset's skills and employment board, the rural enterprise group and the growing places fund group.

James Weld, board member for the Dorset LEP and chair of its rural enterprise group, said: "Being able to shape the future of your local economy is an incredible and rare opportunity.

"Our new board members will play a crucial role in influencing key decisions affecting Dorset's economy and delivering on our ambitious plans for growth.

"As an inaugural board member of Dorset LEP, I can genuinely and proudly say that our work is making a real difference.

"We have already secured more than £100million worth of funding for investment into Dorset.

"This is a really exciting time for new board members to join our team and help further drive economic growth and prosperity across Dorset."

Full details of the job description and application process are available at www.dorsetlep.co.uk/governance. The deadline for applications is June 3rd.

Library users can choose from 2.5million books

Dorset library users will increase their borrowing power from next month.

A new agreement, from June 7th, will mean local lenders having access to more than 2.5million books, talking books and DVDs.

The increased access has been achieved by joining the LibrariesWest consortium which already consists of Bath & North East Somerset, Bristol, North Somerset, Somerset and South Gloucestershire public library services.

With the help of a library management computer system Dorset book-lovers will be able to borrow any title held in around 150 South West libraries.

As a result of the change, some library services will be restricted or unavailable between now and July while the changes are put in place.

For full details please see the notice in your local library, ask a member of library staff or visit www.librarieswest.org.uk.

Greenhill beach huts broken into

POLICE are appealing for witnesses and anyone with information to come forward after breaks at two beach huts in Weymouth.

At 8.41am on Saturday, May 14th, a member of the public contacted Dorset Police to report that two beach huts had been broken into at Greenhill.

The doors of one beach hut had been ripped off and another had been broken into and some contents was damaged.

It is reported that six young adults were seen to leave one of the beach huts and walk along The Esplanade toward the town centre.

One man was wearing a white hooded top and a second was wearing a grey hooded top and was carrying a black and grey backpack with a reflector on it.

A woman was wearing a green Parka-style coat with blue jeans, white trainers and a yellow backpack.

The remaining three people were all wearing dark clothing.

Police Constable Shane How, of Weymouth police, said: "I am appealing to anyone who saw anything suspicious in the area of the Greenhill beach huts on that morning to please call me.

"I am especially keen to hear from anyone who saw a group of six young adults at the relevant time as they might be able to assist with my investigation."

Witnesses and anyone with information should call Dorset Police in confidence on 101 quoting incident number 14:105.

Park and ride to re-open

WEYMOUTH'S park and ride, which has been shut since October, will re-open this week for half-term.

Buses will again be running from the site, at Mount Pleasant, from Saturday, May 28th using Dorset County Council's own fleet of buses.

The service will run between 9am and 7pm until Friday, June 10th.

On the following day, June 11th a new operation starts - with First re-routing the existing public bus service 2 via Mercery Road to provide access to the Mount Pleasant park and ride site.

The service will run between 6am and 11pm, seven days a week during the summer months. It will provide transport to the town centre and seafront every 10 minutes Monday to Saturday and every 15 minutes on Sundays and Bank Holidays.

It will also open access to Sainsbury's and the Wey-

The service will not divert into the park and ride site itself, so a new stop with a shelter is being created on Mercery Road for inbound travel, with a new stop for the return journey as close to Harrier Roundabout as

As part of the new service, parking will be free and passengers will pay on the bus. The fare will be the standard Weymouth rate of £2 single or £3 return with concessionary bus passes valid for travel.

Christian Aid week events

CHRISTIAN Aid Week events in Dorchester and Weymouth are expected to raise thousands of pounds for the charity.

On Wednesday the county town saw a Christian Aid Market and coffee morning in the United Church, opened by Mayor and Mayoress Robin and Val Potter, helped by local organiser Tony Boyden.

Around a dozen stalls selling everything from jewellery to homemade preserves and even video tapes helped swell funds for the charity – while the kitchen was kept busy with demands for teas, coffee and cakes.

In Weymouth the Bay Methodist Church hosted a Christian Aid Brekkie event – fighting poverty with porridge - as the slogan outside the church said.

Helpers in the kitchen were as busy as their counterparts in Dorchester serving up bacon and sausage butties as well as other breakfast fare.

Around 50 people attended the event, which also included a bric-a-brac stall.

Weymouth organiser Jackie Thomas said she was delighted with the turn-out, considering the rain.

"We do get good support from the churches in Weymouth and people generally, but could always do with mouth and people generally, but could always do with a few more helpers," said Jackie who said that a lack of volunteers had meant the end of house to house collections in some parts of the borough.

Weymouth also held a Christian Ai service on Sunday at the Weymouth Bay Methodist Church which was followed by a soup lunch to help add even further to Christian Aid funds.

Mixed future for youth clubs

FOUR local youth clubs will have their transfer approved this week – while the future of others will have to wait.

Dorchester, Southill, Crossways and Bridport youth centres are expected to see formal approval given to local committees today, Wednesday.

In all 19 groups have expressed an interest in taking over the running of youth centre from Dorset County Council.

But the future of some of these may still be months, or even years, away.

The lease for Top Club at Littlemoor is being recommended for an extension beyond January 2017 when the current agreement is due to end, and Chickerell Town Council will create a new building in 18 months' time, giving extra time to come to an agreement over arrangements to run that centre.

Tribute at War Memorial

RESIDENTS and visitors are invited to join Weymouth and Portland Borough Council in commemorating US Memorial Day

This year's US Memorial Day service will take place at the Weymouth American War Memorial on the Esplanade on Monday, May 30th at 11am.

Many local veterans, association representatives and residents will be present to show their respect and remember US personnel who gave their lives during World War II.

The Mayor's Chaplin, the Rev Doctor Danial Newman will be carrying out the service.

The Mayor of Weymouth and Portland Cllr Richard Kosior will lead the service and lay a wreath on behalf of the borough at this important civic event.

Following the official wreath laying ceremony, association representatives and the general public will be invited to lay wreaths.

Cllr Kosior said: "Weymouth, Portland and Dorset have a long and proud relationship with the United States of America and Allied Forces. This annual memorial event gives the borough and its residents an opportunity to pay its respects and reinforce the relationship with our American compatriots".

Children's services told to improve

A NEW chair has been appointed to the Dorset Safeguarding Children Board (DSCB) after inspectors decided it was inadequate.

In a separate inspection the county council's children's services department has been judged to "require improvement to be good".

Ofsted inspectors found that social workers knew their families well but needed to be better supported.

The department has been beset by staff shortages, has the highest stress and sickness rates of all county council departments and is currently undergoing a review which has led to further disruption. Many staff frequently work beyond their hours to try and meet increased demand with a massive increase in referrals.

But in a statement this week Dorset County Council said it is taking steps to improve its support to children and young people.

Ofsted inspectors in their report acknowledge that changes are underway: "They know which services need to be better and are taking steps to improve them."

The inspection found that adoption services in Dorset are good.

The report said: "Most children benefit from stable placements. The local authority does well at placing children with extended family members and at placing brothers and sisters together

"Early consideration is given to whether adoption is in a child's best interests. When it is, swift action is taken to secure the necessary legal status and a good match."

Inspectors identified that most social workers know the children they are working with well, but needed to be supported better. And the inspectors found no children left at immediate risk of significant harm.

Councillor Rebecca Knox, the county council's Cabinet member for Children's Safeguarding said: "As part of our work to improve, we have launched a new recruitment programme to attract more social workers into Dorset and put additional training in place to support our current workforce. We are also working more closely with communities and partner agencies to help families at an earlier stage.

"But clearly, there are still improvements that need to be made. Vigorous plans have already been implemented to ensure we continue on our improvement journey and I remain, as do children's services staff, committed to ensuring all children in Dorset receive the best possible service."

In a separate review, the Dorset Safeguarding Children Board (DSCB) was examined. The inspectors looked at the experiences of children who have needed or still need help and/or protection. This included children who are "looked after" by the local authority and those who are leaving care.

Inspectors considered the quality of work and the difference it makes to the lives of children, young people and families.

Ofsted judged that the DSCB is "inadequate" because "it is not monitoring the effectiveness of help being provided to families or providing sufficient challenge and leadership at a strategic level".

The report goes on to say that "the appointment of an experienced interim chair, who has provided leadership and helped focus the Board, is an important step forwards. Currently, this appointment is too recent to have made a demonstrable difference to the Board's ability to fulfil its statutory functions."

Interim chair of the board, Rob Hutchinson said: "We are committed to working through the recommendations made in the report to ensure the safety of children at risk of harm in Dorset.

"We know that we need to improve the way we monitor the effectiveness of our services and we have already made a number of improvements to the work of the Board"

The 'first Mrs Hardy' is subject of talk

AN event which takes a look at the life of Emma Lavinia: The First Mrs Hardy, with Helen Gibson and Marilyn Leah, takes place at the County Museum this Thursday, May 26th.

Drawing upon the writings and artwork of Emma Hardy, Marilyn Leah and Helen Gibson will outline her early life in Plymouth and Cornwall, her romantic meeting and courtship with Thomas Hardy.

Hardy wrote: "She opened the door of the West to me", and their romance began when Emma opened the door of St Juliot Rectory to the young architect who had arrived to work on the dilapidated church.

Both made sketches and began writing, using Cornwall as the settings of their novels. Emma's novella 'The Maid on the Shore' has never been published and extracts will be shared in this presentation.

The illustrated talk will share the paintings and sketches by Emma Hardy, which are held in the Hardy Archive at the Dorset County Museum.

The lecture will take place in the Dorset County Museum's Victorian Hall and is free although a donation of £3 is encouraged to cover costs. Doors open at 7pm for a 7.30pm start.

Thousands of women Race for Life in bid to beat cancer

MORE than a thousand women took part in Sunday's Race for Life at Kingston Maurward.

Some ran for loved ones who had died from cancer, others to help find a cure to the disease which, one day, might affect them or their children.

And while the young and fit sprinted around the 5km course, set in the grounds of the college, others took it as a leisurely stroll, including a couple with the aid of walking sticks or crutches.

Mexican waves and an exercise warm-up led up to the start of the event at 11am with those at the back of the field taking around five minutes just to get to the starting line.

Last year the event raised almost £78,000 for Cancer Research UK. Organisers hope that this year's event will exceed that amount.

Among the fundraisers this year was mother of two Michelle Every, who lost her mum, Geraldine, to cancer at the aged of 44 in August 2000, when Michelle was just 21-years-old and her younger brother Christopher, 16.

She said: "Mum spent two years battling ovarian cancer, undergoing chemotherapy and losing all her hair. It was so aggressive so while she briefly went into remission it was only for a matter of weeks.

"It was just horrific to go through this and to lose mum. For me, doing what I can to help raise money and awareness is all I can do now."

Open day gives visitors a chance to experience sailing

A VERY successful open day at Castle Cove Sailing Club was held as part of a national initiative to attract more people to take to the water – either for leisure, or sport.

Overlooking Portland harbour with safe sailing waters the event offered an opportunity for a free trial sail – with many taking to single-handed Toppers, larger Wayfarers or Keelboats which need a team of people to sail competitively.

"We had a very successful open day, with many visitors going away with application forms and big smiles, thanks to all who helped by offering sails, manning rescue boats, supplying abundant cakes and just being there to greet and answer questions, said Steve Green from the club committee. "We made a great impression on our guests."

The event co-incided with a regional event for Topper dinghies held at the club with almost 50 travelling to take part in four races.

Castle Cove, which is member-owned and member-run, offers over 130 organised sailing events every year with racing on at least three days each week with safety boats in attendance, and 30 social and training events.

Similar open events were held at the weekend at the Weymouth Sailing Club, hased in Weymouth harbour and at the Weymouth and Portland National Sailing Academy on the other side of Portland harbour.

Pirates on patrol

PORTLAND Museum will be holding their 'Pirate's Day' half term event next Wednesday, June 1st from 10.30am to 4pm.

There will be pirate crafts to make and take as well as decorating a pirate shaped biscuit. Young visitors can also enjoy face-painting, a Splat the Rat competition and a treasure hunt around the museum and garden to find the pirate's lost clothes and accessories where everyone will win a prize.

Those arriving in fancy dress will receive some pirate booty!

Local author Selwyn Williams will also be at the event talking about his book 'Treasure of the Golden Grape', which was ship wrecked on Chesil Beach in 1641.

Also joining in will be the Dorset Wrecks singing sea shanties, and the Jurassic Art Company who will be making model boats.

The cost per child is £3 and adults go free. All money raised will go towards the 'Raise the Roof' campaign to restore the degraded thatch on the museum's 17th century Marie Stopes' cottage.

For more information please call 01305 821804 or email portlandmuseum@gmail.com.

It's a Knockout

GROUPS of friends or colleagues are being asked to form teams of 6-12 people for this year's It's a Knockout competition in Weymouth's Lodmoor Country Park.

The event is an annual fundraiser for the Dorset charity, Diverse Abilities, and will take place on Sunday, June 26th.

It will be run along the lines of the popular TV show with giant costumes, inflatable and lots of water and mess.

"Why not get a team of friends, family or work colleagues together and join the fun," said Sharon Wells from the charity.

Participants must be aged 16, or older, with those under 18 accompanied by an adult.

Teams are asked to raise a minimum of £600. For further information contact Sharon on 01202 718266 or visit the charity website at – www.diverseabilities.org.uk/events.

Get back to nature at Lorton Meadows

AN open event for potential volunteers at the Dorset Wildlife Trust's Lorton Meadows Conservation Centre in Weymouth is being held this week.

There will be a volunteer open day on Thursday, May 26th starting at 12pm. Visitors can come and meet the team, find out more about the reserve and see how they can get involved.

The conservation centre, which is surrounded with 75 hectares of grassland, woodland and hedgerows, is just a stone's throw from the residential areas

Summer music at Greenhill gardens

On Sunday, June 5th The Decadettes will be presenting some of the world's best-known songs from famous singers. On Sunday June 12th local band Replay bring foot-tapping music from the 60's, 70's and 80's, in conjunction with Weldmar Hospice.

On Sunday, June 19th The Silhouettes take to the stage and on Sunday, June 26th it will be the turn of SWAY! – a rock and rhythm and blues treat.

of Littlemoor, Upwey and Weymouth, and provides a tranquil and peaceful greenspace for wildlife to thrive in and people to enjoy. The nature reserve also forms part of the Lorton Valley Nature Park, launched in 2013.

DWT's Seasonal Assistant for Lorton Meadows Conservation Centre, Vicky Ashby said: "Lorton Meadows is a fantastic nature reserve tucked away on the outskirts of Weymouth.

"We run a programme of events for schools and the public, as well as a visitors centre, where we have just extended the opening hours.

"We are looking for volunteers of all ages and backgrounds to help us throughout the year. In return we can offer a fulfilling and interesting role, a beautiful location, and lots of opportunities to meet new people."

Among the current volunteers is Pat, who has been helping out for four years at Lorton Meadows and the Chesil Beach Centre.

He said: "Volunteering has given me great enjoyment within the natural environment. Lorton Meadows has been my prime location, and I enjoy welcoming all ages from kids' events to adults guided walks, set in several habitats in a well-managed visitor centre.

"I like being about to give something back to nature and really enjoy learning about it, gaining knowledge from staff and visitors alike."

Wildlife knowledge is not necessary and full training will be provided.

Weymouth beach wins awards

WEYMOUTH'S central beach has won two awards from Keep Britain Tidy including a prestigious Blue Flag.

It is the first time in over 15 years that the beach has won a Blue Flag award.

The beach, owned and managed by the borough council, has also been awarded a Seaside Award for 2016 from Keep Britain Tidy.

Councillor Jason Osbourne, Weymouth & Portland Borough Council's Tourism and Culture Briefholder, said: "We are delighted to be able to fly the Blue Flag. This will add to the collection of awards that have been given to Weymouth Beach over the years including being voted the second best UK beach by TripAdvisor.

"We wouldn't be achieving these awards if it wasn't for the hard work of our Beach Management Team along with the businesses and concessions that we work in partnership with.

"By working in partnership we continue to make Weymouth Beach enjoyable for both residents and visitors."

• Next week new orders come into force to ban dogs from the beach from June 1st. More than 1,500 people took part in a consultation on the new orders earlier in the year.

As a result there will now be an extended period for the dog exclusion order, between Good Friday and October 21st.

The order will also require, at all times of year, dogs on the promenade to be kept on a lead in an area between the pleasure pier and Bowleaze. The length of the lead must not exceed two metres.

More information can be found in the Weymouth and Portland dog owners guide and www.dorsetforyou.com/dog-warden/weymouth-and-portland.

■ WEYMOUTH and Portland Lions Club have given a boost to the Merchant Navy Association Memorial Appeal by donating £250.

Plans are in place to build a memorial on the Esplanade remembering those who lost their lives in the Merchant Navy.

The memorial will also remember those who lost their lives whilst being part of fishing fleets. If you would like to donate to this appeal call 01305 814225 or 07594 671664.

The Lions were able to make this donation from their various fundraising activities throughout the year.

Their next event is the popular 'Out Loud Festival' in Weymouth town centre Saturday, June 25th and Sunday, June 26th.

BBQ Tip 1 A Long Soak

Marinated food tastes great and grills better, as apart from enhanced flavour, it also helps protect food against high grill temperatures. Normally the longer the better, but a simple tip to cut marinating time is to place food in a sealed plastic bag, massage in marinade and place in fridge. This cuts marinating time by half.

BBQ Tip 2 Low & Slow

BBQ is not a race against time, so don't grill too quickly or on too high a heat as this causes food to burn on the outside whilst being under cooked in the middle. The trick is to 'sear on high' and then take it 'low and slow'. It helps if the grill-bars are well oiled, but don't turn food to often as this reduces heat.

Coneygar Lodge Care Home

IT'S been a busy spring at Coneygar Lodge. In addition to our new arts class, we've had a visit from Sharandys birds of prey who gave all our residents and staff the opportunity to hold several owls and we went along to the fantastic tea dance, held at the town hall.

In March we had our unannounced inspection by the Care Quality Commission (CQC). This was an in-depth look at all aspects of our service over the course of 2 days. We were justifiably proud to receive an excellent report which rated our service as good in every category. This is a great reflection of the hard work and commitment our excellent team of staff put in everyday. The report is available to read on the CQC website.

It's national care homes open day on 17th June and we are holding an open afternoon (2pm onwards) to showcase all that we do and give everyone the chance to have a look around and speak to staff and residents. Please feel free to drop in for a cuppa and cake. The open afternoon is going to have a 1940's theme!

Broadband on track

THE Superfast Dorset project say it is on track to lay 1,000,000 metres of fibre optic cable in the county, enough to stretch from Land's End to John o' Groats.

The project is also about to build its 500th cabinet - the green roadside structures which allow nearby premises to connect to faster broadband.

Nine out of ten Dorset homes and businesses can now access superfast broadband - download speeds of 24Mbs or more.

The latest communities to get new or improved access to fibre broadband thanks to the Superfast Dorset programme include Langton Herring, Milborne St Andrew, Morcombelake, South Perrott and Chedington.

A personal View by HARRY WALTON

■ I AM indebted for this week's Growing Old Disgracefully piece to a few ideas sent me by a pensioner reader determined that their twilight years will be as disgraceful as possible!

Among his suggestions that fellow pensioners can follow to spice up their lives is to sit in their parked car, point a hair dryer at oncoming traffic...and watch it slow down.

Then there is a chance for pensioners to withdraw money from the hole-in-the-wall machine and run down the road screaming "I've won, I've won!" not to mention another opportunity to startle people if a pensioner has been visiting a zoo and is about to leave. Just rush towards the car park shouting: "Run for your lives! They're loose!

His advice isn't confined to the great outdoors because he suggests that pensioners in a restaurant should keep a straight face while asking for a Diet Water and an even straighter face while telling their grandchildren: "We're short of money so we're going to have to let one of you go!"

Slightly more risqué opportunities are afforded by pensioners' visits to the chemist to collect their prescription when they could also pick up a box of condoms and ask where the fitting room

Perhaps my favourite is his suggestion that pensioners really seeking to be as disgraceful as possible could stand in the entrance to a department store's fitting room, drop their pants and shout: "There's no paper in here."

Council remains hung following election

WELL, the election dust has now settled and we have time to assess the major changes which have taken place on Weymouth and Portland council

But....hang on a minute....there aren't any major changes. The council remains hung – and to paraphrase Basil Fawlty: "Yes, it should be!" – with no one party in overall control.

The Conservatives with 14 seats are just the largest party from Labour with 12 and the Liberal Democrats are in third with six while the last four seats comprise a couple of Independents, a UKIP and the council's first Green councillor

If that looks like a bit of a muddle then imagine what was involved when the horse trading started to decide on who was going to be chairmen and vice-chairmen of the committees. The Tories may be the largest party but they would only have a majority if they allied with the Liberal Democrats while Labour could only control matters if they allied both with the Liberal Democrats and with as many of the Independent or other councillors as they could get.

In short, the political niceties being what they are, none of these scenarios was particularly likely and so the leaderships was probably carved up in a propor-

That inevitably saw the Conservatives try to grab control of the influential management committee which could have been a bit of a battleground if Labour and the Lib Dems had really flexed their muscles.

Ironically, even if they had joined forces and the Conservatives had courted the remaining councillors, then the figures still stacked up as 18-18. So that was a recipe for clear-cut decision making wasn't it.

That cross was one we voters must bear the responsibility for since the council has lacked decisive party leadership for many years, reflecting the wide mix of political views across the borough.

This is perhaps good for democracy but not so good when it comes to Weymouth and Portland making any decision about its future since the machinery of government tends to come to a juddering halt, embroiled in rows and argument and counter argument.

Nothing will change until one party controls the majority of seats on the council, and I don't see that happening any time soon.

for me!

I'M sure you've all seen the terrible pictures of boat refugees being rescued by emergency services.

Cold, wet and shivering, they touched hearts as they got out of inflatable craft with only their sodden clothing and a lifejacket.

Yes, I too felt so sorry for residents shown in many parts of Weymouth and Portland, drenched after being suddenly deluged with rain as cloudburst conditions struck almost out of

WADEFORD SWIVEL RECLINER WITH

FREE STOOL WAS £299 NOW £246

What's the matter? What did you think I was talking about? Of course I'm referring to two enormous storms within hours of each other which flooded the borough.

Monsoon conditions may appear to be an overworked phrase, but it was so apt here with water running a foot deep in many places, roads reduced to rivers, traffic crawling along in first gear, shoppers huddled in doorways and huge areas of flooding in almost every road, some of it several feet deep. Emergency services did their best to help people reduced to the role of drowned rats but the colossal volume of water just brought life to a standstill. Police and fire personnel had to cope with a huge spike in emergency calls as homes and gardens flooded and I consider myself to be exceptionally lucky.

Our gutters were overwhelmed by the first storm, so I got ladders out and cleared all of them of any debris - that ranged from plastic wrappers to fireworks -to try and improve rain flow. Hard work but rewarding, I thought.

seconds later the second storm struck and my work was immediately put to the test This time the gutters really worked as I stepped inside to clean up. Sixty but our garden was left under a foot of water in places.

Summer can't come too soon for me.

It's Sweet music for the ears this summer at Dorchester Arts

a summer acoustic concert on Friday 27 May, featuring a double bill from two of the finest rising singer-songwriters in the South West. With Adam Sweet's driving guitar and Saskia Griffiths-Moore clear natural tones, audiences at the Corn Exchange are in for an evening of talent, delivered with humour and style.

Adam Sweet's golden, expressive throat and driving guitar style delivers blues with hard-earned soulfulness, dignity and integrity. Adam performs relentlessly, and has opened for a diverse range of acts that include jazz virtuoso the Bandits who performed at the Corn Exchange last year. He is currently working on the follow-up to his acclaimed debut album Small Town Thinking.

Next up on the bill is singer-songwriter Saskia Griffths-Moore, who is currently touring her debut album Gentle Heart. Saskia is frequently compared to Joan Baez, Joni Mitchell and Eva Cassidy for her clear, enchanting tones, passionate and creative melodies, and her perfect, natural sound. Saskia's original songs draw on the genre's of Americana, roots & darker folk music. Both her album and tour have been funded through kickstarter and Arts Council England respectively. She has been number 1 in Bristol's folk charts since August 2015, and described by Johnny Coppin at BBC Radio Gloucestershire as "...a fine singer-songwriter...wonderful voice and great guitar playing".

Dorchester throughout June and July featuring original and energetic blues from 24 Pesos on 4 June followed by Show of Hands on their Long Way Home tour on 5 & 6 June. Festival favourites King Porter Stomp offer up their critically acclaimed afro-funk and reggae rhythms on 17 June. A week later on Friday 24 June Dorchester Arts welcomes another singer-songwriter double bill featuring Duotone and Alex Hedley, formerly the vocalist with Saturday Sun.

Long-standing music legends come to winning bluesman Kris Dollimore who will be showcasing tracks from his latest album All Grown Up on Sautrday 2 July.

And last, but by no means least, Dorchester Arts are thrilled to welcome household name, pop icon, TV presenter and actress - that is none other than Toyah, as she presents a fantastic acoustic concert of her greatest hits on Friday 8 July at the Corn Exchange.

Weymouth Operatic Society is proud to present 'ANYTHING GOES'

ALL ABOARD for this saucy and splendidly hilarious production of ANYTHING GOES, winner of three 2011 Tony Awards® including Best Musical Revival and Choreography.

One of the greatest musicals in theatre history, Cole Porter's first-class musical comedy is setting sail at the Pavilion Theatre, Weymouth between 1st and 4th June

When the S.S. American heads out to sea, etiquette and convention get tossed out of the portholes as two unlikely pairs set off on the course to true love... proving that sometimes destiny needs a little help from a crew of singing sailors, an exotic disguise and some good old-fashioned blackmail. Peppering this timeless classic are some of musical theatre's most memorable songs, including "I Get A Kick Out Of You," "You're the Top," and of course, "Anything Goes." Don't miss what theatre goers exclaim as, "So DELIGHTFUL, So DELI-CIOUS, So DE-LOVELY!"

With a full cast of experienced members, this show will exude the musical expertise and professionalism of this award winning society.

With professional Direction and choreography from Martine Burt and Musical Direction by Alistair Dean, this is a show not to be missed.

The Summer Season at Bridport Arts Centre has been announced and it looks like it will be a great summer of events!

THERE will be a lively mix of theatre, music, comedy and everything in between! One of the early highlights of the season will be James Freedman -Man of Steal and his show Persuader, Showman, Thief on Saturday 11 June. He comes to Bridport after a sell out run in London's West End where he amazed audiences with his mixture of magic and stealth crime! The wonderful Bristol Old Vic Theatre School return with a superb production of Shakespeare's classic A Midsummer Night's Dream on 14 June a guaranteed night of high quality theatre. Will Kempe - Shakespeare's Stand Up promises to be a highlight of the season. Comedian Tim FitzHigham has put together a hilarious stand up show about the feud between Shakespeare and his comedian Will Kempe.

Charlie Bicknell brings her Cabaret show No Angel Uncensored to the Arts Centre on Friday 17 June, this innovative cabaret show will have you rocking with laughter. The performance features a mix of songs, wit and comic ingenuity entwined with aerial acrobatics. There will be an eclectic mix of music throughout the season ranging from folk, blues, rock, jazz and world music. Samswara are the first musicians on the summer programme playing on 3rd June. Samswara are Ricky Romain sitar player and Jon Sterckx on tabla, they have been thrilling and entertaining audiences throughout the Uk since 2001. During this time they have developed a reputation amongst Indian Music lovers nationally and internationally for their on stage rapport & spontaneous and playful musical dialogues through which they journey from slow, meditative melodies to fast and highly detailed exciting rhythmical interplay. A few weeks later Charlie Dore & Julian Littman unite for an evening of eclectic and contemporary folk on the 1st July. Julian Littman is best known as a member of the folk legends Steeleye Span and Charlie Dore has an illustrious career as a performer and song writer.

She has written for the great and good

including George Harrison but her show reveals she keeps the best songs for herself.

Another exciting gig to look forward to later in the season is The RPMs vs The Tuts playing on 10 September. They are two of the UK's most exciting young bands . The Tuts are a punk pop Trio influenced by Punk legends such as The Selector wand The RPM's led by local Jack Velero are known for their killer hooks. And if you fancy something you can sing along to, don't muss Cloudbusting - bringing life to the songs of Kate Bush on the 24 September.

All the regular favourite mights will be returning. Tom Glover has put together a great programme for the monthly Comedy Cafe, and Phillip Clout's has yet again got some great Jazz musicians for Jazz Cafe including Pete Canter Trio. The much loved Classic Concerts will be back for those of who enjoy the Friday morning concerts.

All the events are now on sale on the website www.bridport-arts.com or pop in to the Arts Centre to grab a programme to see the full line up!

Volkswagen Touareg now available in luxurious new R-Line Plus trim

New Volkswagen Touareg R-Line Plus

THE latest Volkswagen Touareg is a perennially popular luxury SUV that is now gaining that bit more luxury with the arrival of the new range-topping trim level: R-Line Plus.

Volkswagen is now offering the Touareg in its highest specification yet, as the new R-Line Plus trim sits at the pinnacle of the capacious and capable 4x4's line-up.

The Touareg R-Line Plus naturally uses the well-equipped R-Line as a starting point, and builds in valuable and stylish additions inside and out.

Externally, the five-seat SUV's alloy wheels are upgraded from 20 inches to the striking 21-inch 'Mallory' design. Meanwhile, the R-with Volkswagen's impressive Area View technology as standard. This utilises front, rear and side wideangle cameras (mounted within the door mirrors) to provide a 360-degree bird's-eye exterior view of the SUV that is displayed on the Touareg's infotainment display screen.

Area View allows the driver to see the immediate surroundings of the car from a new perspective, and the technology enhances the safety of occupants and those outside the vehicle. For example, Area View allows the driver to 'see around corners'. When driving forwards from a parking space the Touareg driver can, via the system, see pedestrians and cyclists approaching from the side.

Inside, the new Touareg features a generous roster of standard equipment. The centre console, dash and air vent surrounds are finished in stylish 'Piano Black', and the cabin features luxurious 'Vienna' leather upholstery. The front comfort seats are 14-way electronically adjustable, and the front head restraints include four-way adjustment.

The extra equipment has a value of £3,255 the Touareg R-Line is a mere £1,160, underlining the car's great value. That figure applies whether the customer chooses the 204 PS 3.0-litre V6 TDI engine or the 262 PS 3.0litre V6 TDI.

Fuel economy is similar whether the 204 PS or the 262 PS engine is selected. Both offer a combined figure of 42.8 mpg, while CO2 emissions for the 204 PS engine are 173 g/km or 174 g/km for the 262 PS engine.

All of that, of course, is applied on top of a colossal amount of standard equipment on the Volkswagen Touareg R-Line. This includes lowered sports suspension, R-Line body styling, a panoramic sunroof, Bi-xenon headlights, black roof-lining, a heated steering wheel, electric tailgate, and keyless entry.

The Volkswagen Touareg is now available in four trim levels: SE; Escape; R-Line; and R-Line Plus. All feature Volkswagen's 4MOTION all-wheel-drive system, which distributes engine power, as required, to all four wheels helping to ensure optimum traction and propulsion.

The new R-Line Plus trim level is expected to account for around half of Touareg sales, and is available to order through the Volkswagen UK Retailer network now.

For more details, and to use Volkswagen's online configurator for the new Touareg R-Line Plus, please visit www.volkswagen.co.uk

The all-new Renault Grand Scénic

THE 2016 Geneva Motor Show in March saw Renault take the wraps off the All-New Scénic, a striking, compact MPV with pioneering proportions and, in an unprecedented move, 20-inch wheels as the standard fitment across the range. It is now the turn of the new Grand Scénic to break cover and extend the Scénic line-up.

The All-New Grand Scénic, a family vehicle par excellence, comes

▲ The All-New Renault Grand Scénic

with either five or seven seats and features a fresh approach in term of its design, including

- · Chrome or Metal Grey accessories, sculpted forms and body sides, and a distinctive belt line towards the rear which combine to produce a fluid, elegant silhouette.
- For the first time in the seament, 20-inch wheels are standard, while a two-tone livery and harmonious interior trim underline the model's modern personality.

Cabin modularity and travelling comfort - which are two strengths that have helped to forge the Scénic's reputation – have been thought through to ensure that the needs of families are met even more closely. A One Touch Folding Seat function allows the rear seats to be folded automatically to obtain a flat floor and facilitate loading. Meanwhile, the new Grand Scénic is 24cm longer than the new Scénic and consequently boasts extra boot space and carrying capacity compared with its sibling: 718dm3 VDA (five-seat version) for an extra 222dm3 VDA compared with the new Scénic. The new Grand Scénic comes with a comprehensive suite of driver aids too, including Active Emergency Braking (AEBS) with Pedestrian Detection as standard equipment for the first time in the seament. The list continues with technologies from the next seament up, such as Multisense experience, a R-Link 2 multimedia tablet complete with a large 8.7inch display and a full-colour head-up display. Last but by no means least, the fourth generation of the model can be specified with Renault's Hybrid Assist electrified diesel engine.

The All-New Scénic and All-New Grand Scénic (five or seven seats) will be available for sale before the end of the year 2016.

The final UK model-line up, version specifications and pricing will be communicated nearer to the on sale date later in 2016.

The lines of the long version of the new Scénic have been carefully honed to offer families a vehicle with a fluid, elegant silhouette:

- A longer wheelbase and shorter rear overhang compared with the previous generation version.
- Elegantly sculpted sides plus a distinctive belt line towards the rear.
- The vertical form of the new Grand Scénic permanently-lit 3Deffect rear lights stands out from the new Scénic's 'horizontal' rear light cluster.
- A fixed, panoramic glass roof with no cross-member for an even brighter cabin.

- · Fitted as standard from the second equipment level up, the new Grand Scénic's practical matt-finish aluminium roof bars add refinement and status.
- · A Metal Grey diffuser incorporated in the rear bumper skirt.

The new Grand Scénic - more modern than ever:

- · In a segment first, 20-inch wheels are standard across the range (see below)
- A two-tone livery is available from the second equipment level up, either as an option or a standard feature of higher-end versions (depending on market). The colour of the door mirror housings and windscreen pillars is coordinated with that of the roof (Black or Grey).
- The launch colour Vision Brown - is specific to the new Grand Scénic.

Announcing the advanced new Peugeot 3008 SUV

new PEUGEOT 3008 SUV, its most advanced compact SUV. It brings new technology and a unique driving experience to the popular Csegment SUV market and will be revealed later this year at the Paris Motor Show in September.

Greater interior, passenger and luggage space

At just 4450mm in length, the new PEUGEOT 3008 SUV is one of the most compact models in its segment, offering greater passenger and luggage space over the outgoing model. With a longer wheelbase and an overall length which is just 80mm longer than the current model, interior space has greatly improved, most notably for rear occupants who now have an additional 24mm legroom, 4mm elbow room and 36mm headroom. Front elbow space has also increased by 17mm despite the width of the new model being identical to the outgoing version at 1840mm, and height being 19mm lower at 1620mm

Luggage space has also improved in the new 3008 SUV. With a luggage capacity of 520L (under the luggage cover), this is almost 90L bigger than the previous generation. Like the previous version, owners can remove the luggage cover and fold the second row of seats flat; this results in a total luggage capacity of 1580 litres, one of the largest and most versatile load capacities in the segment. Reduced weight, improved driv# ing experiences

Despite the improvements in passenger and luggage capacities, the new model is, on average, 100kg lighter than the previous achieved though intelligent design and use of materials to provide improved efficiency, better fuel economy, increased performance, a more dynamic driving experience and class leading safety. Very High Strength Steel (VHSS) and Ultra High Strength Steel (UHSS) have been used in the vehicles construction, with a thermoplastic boot floor and tailgate and aluminium wings, front suspension arms and rear seat frames. More refined engines also allow for a reduction in sounddeadening materials.

To ensure owners and drivers can enjoy and exploit the full potential of their new 3008, the new model comes with the latest generation PEUGEOT i-Cockpit® which includes advanced sensory engagement for both driver and passengers

Technology has done more than just improve the driver and passenger experience and enjoyment; it has also improved safety with the next generation of safety systems and state-of-the-art driver aids.

Available on the new 3008 is Active Safety Brake and Distance Alert, a distance alert function (risk of collision warning) with automatic emergency braking (to avoid a collision or to limit the severity by reducing vehicle speed) and Active Involuntary Crossing Line, a lane departure alert for safer driving with visual and audible warnings and active vehicle control.

The new model also has the

Close encounter

FOR the second time this season, two of the Bridport men's sides have met each other.

South Dorset Division One. and despite three close games, it was A that prevailed over B by an overall score of 52-33. Craig Bosher David Eastman Derek Hoskin & Brian Rumble's game against David Pattermore, Fred Pomeroy, Bob Seadon & Bob Taylor stood at 9-9 after 13 ends, before winning 16-10. Ben Jones, John Carter, Tom Tocher & Brian Connisbee were locked at 13-13 after the 19th end but found that bit extra to pip Brian Iverson, Mike Long, Paul Tibble & Barry Shortland 15-13.

The third game stood at 13-13 after 13 ends before Chris Taylor, Brian Pratt. Keith Brooks & Chris Thorne drew away from Mike Smith, Steve Bartlett, Ian Newitt & Ken Sanger to win 21-10.

Unfortunately Bridport C didn't fare so well against Portland BO in Division Two. Brian Stone, Mike Craddock, George Strange & Dave Smith gave them a good start winning 19-16 in a good close game with Bridport never behind.

After losing a shot on the first end, John Block, Norman Ludders, Mike Higman & John Ireland went on to Hall, Mike Stephenson, Neil Kennedy & Peter Scott went down 11-28 to give the visitors a 56-63 victory.

Bridport A beat the Borstal officers 69-57½. Although they scored as many ends as their oppo-nents, Mike Loud, Carter, ends which contributed to-wards their 16-21 defeat. Stevenson, Bartlett, Tibble and Sanaer were never be hind and scored a six in their 30-14 victory.

Ireland, Eastman, Seadon & Tocher won 23-18½ against just three opponents to earn Bridport eight points.

Bridport picked up eight points in their Ladies DL Di-vision One match at Dorch-

Jill Willcox, Seadon & Dinah Wilson went down 21-33, whilst Margaret Strange, Pam Gray, Pauline Newitt & Thelma Pratt were lost 16 – 18. With Liz Newman, Janet Bird, Marion Tocher & Jan Tattershall also losing 14-22 they didn't score any points

Sunday's Seaton saw Bridport win 76 -68. Top rink Roger H Smith, Craddock Phillip Wilson & Pratt (23-10).

Bridport Primary lift Kenway cup

Bridport Primary 2 St Catherines 0 THIS match once again suggested the future of West Dorset football looks bright as Bridport Primary retained the Kenway Cup, this time against a dogged display from St Catherine's writes Stuart Broom.

A large crowd of around 150 were captivated by an absorbing game that saw Bridport Primary School (BPS) dominate the first half but fail to take full advantage of the chances they created. They turned round at halftime a goal to the good, but then had to withstand a spirited fight back from St Catherine's in the second half before finding their touch again to add a second to claim victory.

Played initially on a round robin basis involving schools from all of West Dorset, St Catherine's beat Greenford in the quarter-final and Salwayash 7-4 to reach the final after being 4-1 down, whilst holders Bridport Primary (BPS), convincingly despatched Beaminster and then Thorner's 3-1 in the semi-final. Indeed St Catherine's would have appeared favourites going into the match having beaten BPS 3-0 in the preliminary

BPS attacked from the start and St Catherine's keeper Harvey Coombes was soon forced into action, turning Jack Etherington's fierce shot away, before a great ball from Frankie Hodge found Toby Mann but he shot straight at Coombes.

Their pressure told however in the sixth minutes when following good work from Noah Tattershall a cross bounced off a defender's knee to Tegan Furner who scored from close range.

With Hodge who has a superb left foot, providing a series of diagonal passes which intersected the opponents defence, and Tattershall providing the steel and running in midfield, BPS produced a number of chances.

However, slowly St Catherine's forced their way into the game with Fynley Morgan showing good touches, and they almost equalised when a long range shot cannoned back off the crossbar.

On the stroke of halftime Mann had a great chance to increase the lead when put through, but Coombes saved with his legs before recovering quickly to grab Ewan Leedham's follow up header.

St Catherine's came close to equalising within a minute of the restart when Morgan struck the post and then saw Alfred Ross produce a great save from his follow up.

BPS doubled the lead two minutes later when a great one-two down the left found Mann in front of goal, and although Coombes got a hand to it he couldn't keep it out.

St Catherine's picked up their game and with Freddy Parkman producing a fivestar performance all over the pitch, they took the game to BPS, and Morgan saw his fierce free kick blocked.

A flurry of chances in the final minutes might have brought another goal, but for good work by both keepers Coombes and Ross who both made a number of impressive saves. Coombes saved from Mann whilst Euan Chant fired wide at the other end, as did Etherington in the final sec-

Ably refereed by Anthony Lockley with assistants Zak Hawker and Ryan Gall, the game once again reminded all those present of the ethos of football as a sport at all levels - before television and advertising changed it to the business it is now.

Lee Cuff, organiser of the event, who intimated it may be his last year, addressing the crowd after the game said: "Once again we have been treated to a wonderful game of football played in the best of "Both teams are a credit to West Dorset. I would also like to thank every school and team who took part this year to make the competition such a success.

He also thanked Bridport FC for the use of their pitch and hoped that playing on St Mary's Field would motivate all the players to continue and aspire to the same high level.

"He thanked announcer Alan Kidson, Ruth for providing refreshments and the match officials for their hard work, and made special reference to groundsman Sean Coombs.

"Sean has been magnificent and spent an awful lot of time preparing and marking the pitch for which we are very grate-

The cup and awards were presented by Bridport Reserves manager Shaun Annetts who has done a splendid job this season of rebuilding the club's links with the youth teams in the town.

Bridport heading for Premier

Bridport 34 Weymouth 6

THIS victory over arch-rivals Weymouth meant that Dorset League Premier squash will be played the Bridport Leisure Centre next season writes Roger Lewis.

This is a real coup for the Bridport Squash Club and a massive achievement by all players who had represented the first team.

Number one, coach Jason Martin was on top of his game against Nick Corbin. Right from the start it was the positional awareness of Martin which counteracted Corbin's hard-hitting game. It was always going to be Martin's game and as well as Corbin tried, he succumbed 9-3, 9-6, 9-5.

Ollie Duquemin was up against the experienced Weymouth number two Martin Bodimeade. Duquemin showed all his tenacity and went on to take a 10-9, 9-4, 9-2victory.

Andrew Mcillavary produced an awesome display in his number three match against Ross Mckechnie, His shot play and retrieving ability was 100 per cent throughout the match, and his power saw him through to a 9-7, 9-3. 9-5 victory

The only dent in Bridport's victory was the number four match between Bridport's Jez Brodie and Ben Lever who took command from the start forcing mistakes at critical times to record a very good 9-5, 9-7, 9-5 victory.

Up-and-coming youngster Ben Smith showed a tremendous amount of potential in his number five match against Weymouth's captain Garry Biles.

Youngster Smith outwitted his opponent in all departments of the game and it was a case of damage limitation for Biles as Smith went on to record a 9-0, 9-1, 9-3 victory.

It has been a good season for the Bridport club. Bridport 3rds won Division Four, whilst Bridport 2nds retained their status in Division Three.

THERE was a cheer at last for the men's team in the Dorset championship with an 8-2 away win at Greenhill. Lyme 2 had a rest this week but the South Dorset side lost out to Dorchester at home.

The Ladies continued their good run with a 9-1 home victory over Sherborne. The home green continues to be tricky but will probably settle down after tournament

On Sunday, due to a dearth of friendlies, the Club held an in-house 'Crown Green' event raising funds for the installed Automated External Defibrillator [AED]. The afternoon was very well attended with £249 being raised. The Club has raised all the monies for this device from fund raising events, a very creditable effort.
With the arrival of the AED, 12 club members attended a five hour course at the Clubhouse, a course which included: Basic Life Support; Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation[CPR]; as well as instruction on the use of the AED.

On Sunday the Club will again be raising funds with their 'BIG BREAKFAST' which is open to everyone.

Two-shot win for Tim

IN THE May Stableford Division One Tim Daniel scored steadily on the front nine with 21 points and, despite a 'blob' on the 10th, held his nerve to score 18 on the back nine to win with 39 points.

John Hodgetts secured another podium finish just beating Peter Mayles on countback, both with 37 points. In Division Two there was a solid performance from Alan Jones, who scored on every hole to secure his win with 39 points. Harry Harris also scored on every hole to finish second on countback from Mark Lewis with 37 points.

they were beaten in the Areafinal by The Thomas Hardye School, in the first meeting between the final having narrowly beaten Budmouth 2-1 in the semi final; the winner coming in the dying minutes through a 30 yard spectacular half volley from James Cox.

The first half was very even and chances fell to both teams, with Colfox keeper Grant Rist called into action a few times whilst George Wyrill put a header wide from close range.

DTHS took the lead on 15 minutes when their striker who was the difference on the day, cut through the Colfox defence to coolly finish the first of his three goals, and then added a second just before the break.

DTHS were just a bit quicker and stronger, and midway through the second half the DTHS striker cut loose again to complete his hat trick and put the result beyond doubt.

Five minutes from time Colfox played their best bit of football with Jaydon Brown combining with Navin Vij on the edge of the DTHS box, and when the ball was cut back Alfie Norman fired home to set up a lively final five minutes. However it was too late, and the game deservedly went to DTHS.

THE Thursday competition was a self-entry Bogey.

The term bogey is generally reckoned to be used in connection with things that are unpleasant and as a golf format some would think the term appropriate.

However, as you see this was a 'self-entry' competition and nobody held a gun to the heads of the 50 of us who put our names down to play this none-too-popular format.

Only three players managed to

Park and Ride key to Jermyn's budget

UNCERTAINCY as to whether the Park and Ride scheme which currently operates from Dorchester Town Football Club's car park will be active next year has meant a reduction in the playing budget available to manager Mark Jermyn.

This follows West Dorset District Council's decision not to renew its lease of the Avenue Stadium car park, which provides a weekday shuttle bus service to and from County Hall. Around 160 people use the service on a regular basis which costs £1 a day which cuts congestion in the town centre.

The club are currently talking to other possible partners to continue the service which is due to end in the summer.

As a result the management have had no alternative at present but to reduce the playing budget which will have an effect on the number of players that can be offered contracts next season, and is a big blow to the managements ambitions to push for a playoff place

Assistant manager Nick Crittenden said:"It is a huge blow as we were expecting to be working with at least the same budget as last

However, the decision has thrown doubt on whether that additional income will be available in the future, and they have had to cut our funds accordingly."

The club had targets for the upcoming campaign, and whilst they are still pursuing some of those, it is making life very difficult for them to juggle the finances.

Crittenden added: "We have spoken to the players and made firm offer to those we want to keep and whilst others have been advised to return for pre-season training to prove they are worth a contract.

There are three or four new acquisitions we have targeted but it means reluctantly that we will have to cut our squad by two or three to accommodate them.

Captain Jake Smeeton took the top award, The Players Player, at the recent Magpies end of season presentations recently.

Charlie Davis won the Online Player of the Season and the Golden Boot awards, whilst Nathan Walker's goal at Kings Lynn won him the Goal of the Season.

Simon Evans has stood down as reserve team manager citing work commitments.

Bradley Tarbuck who signed for the Mag-pies last summer has left to join Havant & Waterlooville

Matthews begins preparation

WEYMOUTH manager Jason Matthews has been busy regrouping ready for another assault on promotion next season from the Evo-Stik South Premeir Division.

Having just failed to qualify for a play-off spot in the last two campaigns he is convinced he has the nucleus of a squad to make it third time lucky.

Although three have left the club, he is buoyed by the resigning of some of his most

Pat Baldwin had already announced his retirement after the last game of the season; the 33-year-old experienced central defender having decided to pursue a full-time career in teaching.

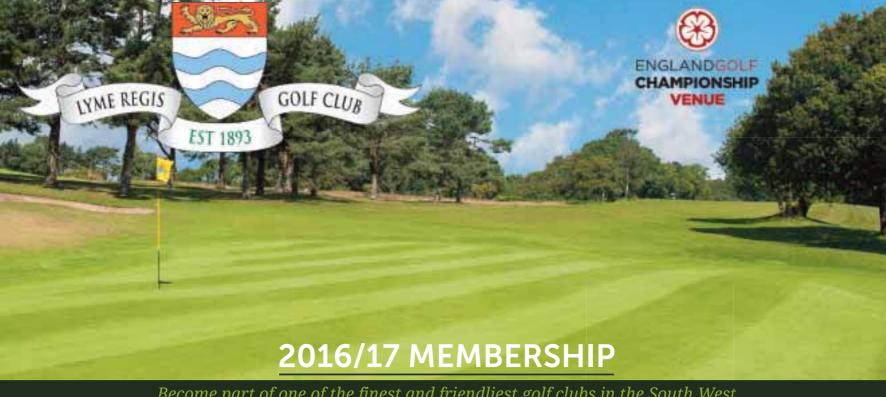

He was joined last week by midfielder George Rigg and Luke Winsper who has been with the Terras for five years, but wants to play regular first team football. Rigg, who Matthews described as "a fantastic servant" to the club is due to join Bath City.

However on the plus side Matthews will be excited by the fact that Chris Shephard, probably the most exciting player at the club, has already penned a new one-year deal, and has been joined by three others. Central defender Calvin Brooks who skip-pered the side towards the end of the season has also agreed a new one-year deal, and has been followed this week by defenders Ashley Wells and teenager Billy Lowes.

Meanwhile, Matthews is also targeting new
